

 GRCA Regulation Limits

Development, interference with wetlands, or alterations to shorelines or watercourses within the Grand River Conservation Authority regulated areas will require a permit from the Grand River Conservation Authority in accordance with the applicable regulation approved under the Conservation Authorities Act. The actual regulated area may differ from the area shown, which is shown for illustrative purposes and the regulated area, as determined by the Grand River Conservation Authority, shall prevail.

